Description

Anemone 'Pretty Lady Emily' is the one of the compact and floriferous of Anemones, with bright pink, double blossoms of broad overlapping petals surrounding whorls of bright yellow stamens. Persisting for weeks, the eye-catching flowers of this Anemone attracts pollinators. It is deciduous and requires low care. This well-behaved beauty is a wonderful naturalizer that is perfect for adding a splash of color to the late season garden. They are great for front borders and containers. The branching stems of poppy-like flowers are superb for cutting.
